

August 27-30, 2007

School supplies were purchased for school age children
BESOMBODY.ORG was introduced to middle and high school aged children.

Battlefield Wal-mart Employees volunteered their vehicles and personal time to assist with the delivery of over $7000 in school supplies.

Youth excited about the BESOMBODY.ORG backpack.

Brenda G. Willis, Executive Director of CRHA addressed the residents on the importance of education

Back-to-School Bash

Treacle Elementary Principal, Hope P. Terrell; addressed students and parents on school rules and regulation and the importance of parent involvement in a child's education.